Terms And Conditions

1. I agree that (i) I am a Christian; and (ii) I will conduct my business with honesty, integrity, and work within the guidelines of the Christian Business Fellowship Association (the “Association”).
2. If there is a complaint or dispute against me or my company, I will allow the Association to investigate such disputes and intervene on behalf of the customer, and if the Association determines in its sole discretion, the Association may revoke my membership.
3. I hereby irrevocably grant the Association permission and license to (a) use my name, business or organization name, names of the employees and members of my business or organization, and any likeness thereof in any marketing materials, advertisements, endorsements, and other materials as the Association may determine; and (b) post any letters and comments the Association may receive from customers, clients or anyone else to be posted and made public (whether or not they place me or my business or organization in a favorable light).
4. I understand that, unless specifically authorized to do so, I am not authorized to take any actions on behalf of the Association, and that my membership in the Association does not necessarily entitle me to any voting, participating or equity interest in the Association.
5. I will only use the Association's name, logo, icons, marketing pieces and other tools only as permitted by the Association.
6. I understand that, as a member, I will be held to higher standards in my business and personal life, and that my membership is contingent upon my meeting the moral and ethical standards which the Association may from time-to-time require. If I do anything that is considered detrimental to the Association or their image in the sole discretion of the Association, I understand the Association may terminate my membership or revoke my privileges and I will not be refunded for any remaining part of my membership, regardless what level I am.
7. I understand that if my membership is terminated for any reason (including, but without limitation, non-payment of fees, termination by me, or terminated for violations of any of the foregoing) I will immediately cease using the Association's name, logos, icons, marketing pieces, and any other tools given to me. Without limiting the foregoing, if I have material in print with these items (including but without limitation business cards), I will immediately replace them at my sole cost and expense, unless I receive express written permission from the Association to continue to use such materials until gone.
